Dear Friends of Maine Basketball,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 41st annual Maine McDonald's All-Star High School Senior Basketball Games in partnership with the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches (MABC). Despite the challenges the last year has brought, we're proud to bring you this year's event in a virtual format.

The All-Star Players are selected by a statewide vote conducted by MABC. All Maine varsity basketball coaches receive a ballot containing the names of the best senior basketball players from more than 150 schools from across the state. Players receiving the highest number of votes in each region are named to the All-Star Teams. The All-State Academic Team is selected from a large list of nominees submitted by coaches throughout Maine. The MABC's Academic Committee spends many hours analyzing the nominations before finalizing their list of those boys and girls who exemplify what it means to be a student-athlete. Mr. and Miss Basketball are also chosen by committees composed of former high school coaches, current college coaches and members of the media throughout the state. Committee members spend many days and nights at games and long hours following individual players as they work to determine who is most deserving of this prestigious award. Each team held their own shoot-off to determine which among them would be deemed one of the best in the state. The top 4 boys and top 5 girls from those shoot-offs then held a virtual foul shooting contest to crown a winner.

From the beginning, MABC and the Maine McDonald's Owner/Operators have taken great pride in recognizing the very best Maine student-athletes. In addition, 100% of the net proceeds from the All-Star event supports the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maine, whose Ronald McDonald House Programs in Bangor and Portland provide a home away from home for families who need to be close while their seriously ill children receive medical care.

I have been involved with MABC, in coaching high school basketball, and with supporting the All-Star Games for many years and it is my honor to serve as MABC President. I want to thank each and every coach, player, parent, and basketball fan who has supported MABC and the annual Maine McDonald's All-Star Senior High School games over the years. Your efforts in making these games enjoyable and worthwhile for all of us is so very much appreciated. Please know without you, this event, even in this virtual form, would not be possible.

Yours in Basketball,

Peter Murray, MABC President

Improving Basketball & Recognizing Players & Coaches in Maine • Promote the development of basketball and to make necessary recommendations towards this end to the Maine Principals Association • Encourage and recognize professional accomplishments through the sponsorship of achievement programs and awards • Work for the betterment of youth by the sponsorship of games and activities where the abilities and talents of youths will be recognized.

2021 Recipient of the MABC Media Award for Outstanding Basketball Coverage

WHOU has had a long history of covering basketball games for many decades via radio on 100.1fm. In 2011 the station started streaming a few of the basketball games with video coverage to see if there was any community interest. Since that time, WHOU has expanded streaming every year and has grown the staff to accommodate not just basketball but additional sporting, musical, community events, and awards ceremonies. In 2020 WHOU.live was launched as a stand-alone streaming service to accommodate the larger number of broadcasts and added veteran broadcaster, Dale Duff, to the team to spearhead the service and broadcasts in the Bangor region. Led by owner Fred Grant, the broadcasting crew frequently includes veteran announcers Tim Tweedie, Rob Moran, Steve Carmichael, Bobby Russell, Brian McDormand, and Ryan Lincoln. The success and expansion of WHOU.live could not have happened without the guidance of Ian Small, streaming and technical engineer. Ian's guidance can be seen in all aspects of the broadcasts impacting equipment, infrastructure, graphics and design work.

The full staff required to accommodate production has increased dramatically in 2020 and 2021 and now includes over 25 videographers, 10 producers, multiple technical assistants and full-time staff members, Jamie Ciani and Tim Youngfellow who manage WHOU.live. Leading our videographer staff on a regular basis are standouts Ricky Goupille, Tyler Hewey, Isaac Potter and Ben Grant. Last, but not least a special thanks to the great WHOU sales staff of Gloria Austin, Chris Putnam and Alex Crone.

I. J. Pinkham 2021 Recipient of the MABC Bob Brown Contributor Award for Improving the Quality of Maine Basketball

I. J. Pinkham grew up in rural Washington County and graduated from Milbridge High School. While in high school, he ran cross country, and played basketball and baseball for four years.

Upon graduation, I.J. enrolled at Farmington State Teachers College. While there, he played four years of varsity basketball under legendary coach Len McPhee, who he considers to be his mentor. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in education and teaching.

I. J. received his first teaching and coaching positions at Buckfield High School. After seven years at Buckfield, he applied for and received a teaching and coaching position at Boothbay Region High School, where he coached for 42 years. For 12 years, he served as the athletic director. While at Boothbay, he received his Masters of Science degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Southern Maine.

I.J. has been a member of the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches since it's inception and served on the executive committee as the secretary for over 25 years.

All-Star Basketball Games

Honoring the Spirit of the Game

For over 40 years the Maine McDonald's High School Senior All-Star Basketball Games has honored athletes that excel on the court and in the classroom. In 2009, the Maine McDonald's Spirit of the Game Award was added to honor two high school basketball team members – one from the North division and one from the South – who embody the spirit of the sport, exemplify sportsmanship, have shown an ability to overcome obstacles and boundaries, and support and inspire their teammates and coaching staff.

The Spirit of the Game recipients are honored each year at the All-Star Awards Banquet and then serve as managers for their respective divisional teams on Game Day.

Two Maine athletes, Patrick Thibodeau and the late Joshua Titus, inspired this award. Though collectively they only played two games in high school, they inspired many in their community and showed a great commitment to their respective basketball programs.

Josh and Patrick were nationally recognized, appearing on a CBS Sports Final Four broadcast, and received additional awards and recognition including the Boston Celtic's Heroes Among Us Award. In honor of these two young men who inspired America, the awards have been named the Joshua Titus Spirit of the Game Award and the Patrick Thibodeau Spirit of the Game Award.

The students and athletes that are nominated and chosen for this award each year showcase their heart, dedication, and spirit in many ways. It may be a player who was injured during the season but still attended every practice and game to support his or her team. Or maybe it is a player who doesn't possess the best athletic ability but has an endlessly positive attitude that motivates their teammates through every game and every practice.

The recipients of the Maine McDonald's Spirit of the Game Awards are selected by representatives of McDonald's of Maine, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maine, and the Thibodeau and Titus Families.

MEET THE Klessens FAMILY

They found a special place to call home for 42 nights.

Joel, Lisa, and their son, Chandler, traveled from Alaska to Maine for Chandler to receive treatment at Spring Harbor Hospital's Autism Unit. With Chandler no longer able to fly, the family drove over 4,000 miles in a motorhome to Spring Harbor Hospital. The long drive added to the exhaustion, but the greatest challenge was still ahead: Joel and Lisa had to leave their son in a hospital setting for the first time. Shortly into this journey, they discovered our Ronald McDonald House® and found the respite they needed to face the battle ahead while Chandler received inpatient treatment. Once settled, Joel had to return to work in Alaska. Lisa was left alone in a state she knew little about, with nobody to turn to. The Portland House was there to provide the comforts of home with meals, a warm bed, laundry facilities, and more.

Lisa quickly realized Ronald McDonald House® Portland provided more than a place to sleep; it was a community. During her stay, Lisa was able to connect with other parents facing similar fears and concerns. Regardless of age or diagnosis, these families would share a meal together, offer encouragement, and celebrate each other's medical milestones. Lisa formed friendships with other moms, many of whom she still stays in contact with. Lisa never expected to form these bonds, but they made all the difference in her stay.
